

PROFILE

Suresh Nandanwar, Commissioner, CGST Delhi Audit-I&II

Mr. Suresh Nandanwar is an officer of the Indian Revenue Service (Indirect Taxes and Customs) 1996 Batch. He is working in the present assignment since August, 2022. Mr. Nandanwar is a Bachelor of Engineering (Mining).

Mr. Nandanwar has worked as Assistant Commissioner at Pune Customs and Central Excise Pune-II; as Deputy Commissioner at Central Excise & Customs Pune-II, as Joint Commissioner at Central Excise Mumbai-II and Raigad; as Additional Commissioner at Central Excise & Customs Raigad, Nhava Sheva, Mumbai, Trichy, Tuticorin, as Commissioner of Customs at Tuticorin, GST Ahmedabad South, Ahmedabad Audit and DGoV Ahmedabad.

While posted at Mumbai Customs, he was awarded 'Certificate of Appreciation' for commendable and excellent efforts in the investigation of the case related to wrong availment of notification benefits by M/s. Tata Motors Limited and successful recovery of government revenue of Rs.2.77 crore was made.

While posted at Tuticorin Customs, he had attended the training course at Pacific Northwest National Laboratory (PNNL) HAMMER facility, USA.
