S. No.	Whether sub-rule (2) of rule 28 of CGST Rules will apply to the corporate guarantees issued prior to insertion of the said sub-rule on 26th October 2023? Also, where intra-group corporate guarantees have been issued before 26th October 2023, which are still in force today, would they be liable to pay GST on "1% of the amount of such guarantees?	providing corporate guarantee to any season party or financial institution by a supplier to a related recipient, on behalf of the said recipient, was taxable even before the insertion of sub-rule (2) in rule 28 of CGST Rules with effect from 26th October 2023. 		Therefore, in respect of supply of services of providing corporate guarantee between related persons, in respect of corporate guarantee issued or renewed before 26 th October 2023, the valuation of the said supply is to be done in accordance with Rule 28, as it existed during that time. However, if the corporate guarantee is issued or renewed on or after 26 th October 2023, then the valuation of the said supply will be

The activity of supply of the service of providing a corporate guarantee is not linked with the actual disbursal of the loan. The service that is provided by the guarantor to the guarantee is that of taking on the risk of default. Therefore, it is clarified that the value of supply of the service of providing a corporate guarantee will be calculated based on the amount guaranteed and will not be based on the amount of loan actually disbursed to the recipient of the corporate guarantee.

Further, it is also clarified that the recipient of the service of providing corporate guarantee shall be eligible to avail the ITC, subject to other conditions specified in the Act and the Rules made there under, irrespective of when the loan is actually disbursed to the recipient, and irrespective of the amount of loan actually disbursed.

Therefore, if the loan issued by the banking company/ financial institution is taken over by another banking company/ financial institution, the said activity of taking over of the loan does not fall under the service of providing corporate guarantee to any banking company or financial institution by a supplier to a recipient. Therefore, it is clarified that in such cases, there will be no impact on GST, unless there is issuance of fresh corporate guarantee or there is a renewal of the existing corporate guarantee. However, if the take over of the loan is followed/ accompanied by issuance of fresh corporate guarantee, then GST would be payable on the same. 4 Where corporate guarantee is In cases where corporate guarantee is being provided by more than one provided by multiple related entities, the value of such entity/co-guarantor, what is the services of providing corporate guarantee shall be the amount on which GST sum of the actual consideration paid/ payable to payable by each co-guarantor? co-guarantors, if the said amount of total consideration is higher than one percent of the amount of such guarantee offered. In cases where the sum of the actual consideration is less than one per cent of the amount of such guarantee offered, then GST shall be payable by each co-guarantor proportionately on one per cent of the amount guaranteed by them. For instance, if there are two co-guarantors, A and B, who jointly provide a corporate guarantee to a banking/financial institution on behalf a related recipient C for Rs. 1 crore, then A and B shall each pay GST on 0.5% of the amount guaranteed. However, if in the above case of A and B providing corporate guarantee jointly to a banking/financial institution on behalf a related recipient C for Rs 1 crore, A provides guarantee for 60% of the guarantee amount and B provides guarantee for the remaining 40% of the guaranteed amount, then GST shall be payable by A and B proportionately i.e., 0.6% and 0.4% of the amount guaranteed. This is to say that A shall pay GST on 1% of the amount guaranteed by A, i.e., 1% on Rs. 60 lakhs and B shall pay GST on 1% of the amount guaranteed by B, i.e., 1% on Rs. 40 lakhs. It is clarified that in cases where domestic corporate Where intra-group corporate issue intra-group guarantees, GST is to be paid under guarantee is issued, whether forward charge mechanism, and invoice is to be issued GST may be paidby the by the supplier of the service of providing recipient under reverse charge,

However, in cases where such guarantee is provided by the foreign/ overseas entity for a related entity located in India, then GST would be payable under reverse charge mechanism, by the recipient of service, i.e., the related entity located in India.

Therefore, it is clarified that the value of supply of the service of providing corporate guarantee to a banking company or a financial institution on behalf of a related recipient shall be one per cent of the amount guaranteed per annum or the actual consideration, whichever is higher.
		Accordingly, the value of supply of the service of Providing corporate guarantee to a banking company Or a financial institution on behalf of a related recipient for a particular number of years shall be one percent of the amount of such guarantee offered multiplied by the number of years for which the said guarantee is offered or the actual consideration whichever is higher.
		In addition to the above, in cases where the corporate guarantee is provided for a period less than a year, say 6 months (half a year), then in those cases as well, the valuation may be done on proportionate basis for the said period, i.e., in this case, the value of the said supply of services may be taken as half of one percent of the amount of such guarantee offered (6/12 *one per cent), or the actual consideration, whichever is higher.
		To illustrate the same, if a corporate guarantee is issued for a period of say five years, then the value of such guarantee is to be calculated at one per cent per year of the amount of such guarantee offered, or the actual consideration, whichever is higher, i.e., the value of such corporate guarantee provided would be 5% of the amount guaranteed or the actual consideration, whichever is higher. Therefore, GST would be payable on such amount at the time of issuance of such

		However, if a corporate guarantee is issued, say for a period of one year and is renewed five times, for a period of one year each, then tax would be payable on one percent of the amount of such guarantee offered, or the actual consideration, whichever is higher, on the issue of such corporate guarantee in the first year as well as on every renewal in subsequent years. 7 Whether the benefit of Proviso has been inserted in sub-rule (2) of Rule 28 second proviso to sub-rule (1), of CGST Rules, retrospectively with effect from 26th which October 2023 vide notification No. 12/2024 -CT dated states that value 10.07.2024, similar to that provided in the second declared in invoice is deemed proviso to sub-rule (1) of Rule 28 of CGST Rules, to to be the open market value in provide the benefit in cases involving supply of service cases where full input tax of corporate guarantees provided between related credit is available to the recipient of services, is not persons. applicable in cases falling Accordingly, it is clarified that in cases involving the under sub-rule(2)? supply of service of corporate guarantees provided between related persons, where full input tax credit is available to the recipient of services, the value declared in the invoice shall be deemed to be the value of supply of the said service.
